April 10, 1919.

Philip Rhinelander, Esquire,
32 East 39th Street,
New York City.

Dear Sir:

At a meeting of the Council of The American Numismatic Society, held April 7, you were made a life member of this Society in consideration of your having paid the annual dues for twenty years.

May I avail myself at this opportunity to express to you how much we have appreciated your support?

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.
